

Information Literacy and Middle States Accreditation:
How do we measure up?
June 14, 2004

AGENDA

- 9:30am Coffee and registration
- 10:00-10:15 Introduction
- 10:15-noon Presentations:
Keynote: Information Literacy: What is Middle States Looking For?
Thomas G. McFadden, Director, Schaffer Library, Union College
Panel: Information Literacy and the Self-Study: Our Experiences
Peter Koonz, Library Director, The College of St Rose
Stephen Crandall, Director, Herrick Library, Alfred University
Karen Bordonaro, Associate Director, Library, Canisius College
Barbara Porter, Associate Dean of Arts and Sciences, Canisius College
- Noon-1:00pm Lunch
- 1:00-3:15pm Discussion of the following questions:
- v What are the six elements of information literacy and how are they assessed?
 - v What tips would be helpful in conducting your self-study?
 - v How much is information literacy integrated institution-wide into the curriculum.
How do you increase the breadth of this integration? How do you increase the complexity as students progress in their programs?
 - v What is the extent of collaboration between faculty, library staff, and administration for information literacy? How can this be further encouraged?
 - v How do you know your graduates are information literate?
- 3:15-3:30pm Wrap-up and what is next.